

YOUR VOICE THEIR FUTURE

JOIN US on February 28th, 2022 for two CLEs presented by ITVAP and IPATH.

12pm to 2pm

Human Trafficking and Indiana Youth: Collaborative Support of Victims and Survivors presented by ITVAP (approved for 2 credit hours)

- Understand human trafficking in Indiana, the laws, and the scope of the issue among youth. Recognize risk factors that lead to heightened vulnerability and identify trafficked youth. Learn how to connect survivors to resources and services.

5pm to 7pm

Reducing the Demand for Commercial Sexual Exploitation Presented by IPATH (approved for 1.5 credit hours)

- Learn about the demand for human trafficking and efforts to disrupt and reduce demand in our community. Summarize a multidisciplinary approach to demand reduction and learn of anti-demand resources.

Both courses are open to child welfare professionals, judicial officers, family law attorneys, defense attorneys and prosecutors. The evening training is designed for those who have attended the Human Trafficking and Indiana Youth course, or a similar Human Trafficking awareness course. Attendees may choose to attend in person or virtually.

To register please email Carey Haley Wong at Carey@childadvocates.net.

When registering, please indicate if you plan to attend both sessions or one of the two, and if you prefer to attend virtually or in person.
